

would like to state how KLOVE serves me and my family as a resident in a local community. If Klove were displaced by an LPFM broadcaster, we would possibly not be able to listen to what has been an uplifting and regular part of our day. KLOVE has helped many individuals including myself, live a more spiritual life, and has helped thousands of individuals change their lives for the better and their Christian faith stronger.